

THE PAYSON MORNING SCROLL

MADE EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE MOGOLLON'S HEARTH GUESTS

"All the news worth knowing before the mead hall opens."

THE GREYBEARDS OF HIGH HROTHGAR — PUBLISHER & PROPRIETOR

PAYSON, ARIZONA · SUNDAS, THE 4TH OF FROSTFALL (SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2026)

· MORNING EDITION — VOL. 2610, No. 04

PRICE: ONE SEPTIM

Henny claims the sunniest plank of the deck and basks like a thane on holiday, daring the sky to cloud over.

SKIES O'ER THE HOLD

82° / 57°

Sunny

Sunrise 6:22 AM · Sunset 6:05 PM

Tomorrow — Sunny, 79/58

OVERHEARD LAST NIGHT

The garlic braid sold out at the market Saturday — the vendor swears she never saw the buyers, only a neat stack of coins left on her counter. The barkeep only shrugged: "Aye. They only ever shop when the nights run long."

THE MOON'S RECKONING

Yesterday

Tonight
Last Quarter

Tomorrow

waning toward the new moon

4th of Frostfall = October 4

Months run one-for-one all year

Sundas=Sun ... Loredas=Sat

AROUND THE HOLDS · THE WEEK AHEAD

The Faire's Final Day — and the Week Rolls On Payson, Ariz.

The faire's last day: one final caber toss, one last round of the village — Sundas, nine of the morning clock to five of the evening.

HAIL and well met, friends of the Hearth — Sundas rises over the Rim in a wash of gold, and the faire's last day is upon us: the North Inch village throws its gates open one final time, nine of the morning clock to five of the evening, for one last caber toss, one last song on the pipes, and one last stroll through the artisans' row before the tents come down. Frostfall has settled over the Hold proper now, and the week ahead runs rich: a classic car show rolls into Payson, the fort at Camp Verde celebrates its seventieth homecoming, and Sedona fills the red rocks with wings, wheels, and art. Fill thy cup, traveler — the Hold is wide awake.

HAPPENING IN THE HOLDS TODAY

• Payson

— North Inch Renaissance Faire — the inaugural Scottish faire's last day: artisans, combat demonstrations, Highland games, and the court of Mary Queen of Scots, 9 AM–5 PM at the Payson Golf Course, 1504 W Country Club Dr

— The Sketch Mob – Renaissance Style — a sketching meetup in faire garb, 10 AM at Fairways Dining in the Payson Golf Club

Pine-Strawberry

— 36th Annual Pine-Strawberry Craft Fair — vendors galore beneath the Rim, 8 AM–4 PM at the Pine-Strawberry Community Center ramada, 3886 N Hwy 87, Pine

Sedona

— Sedona Community Farmers Market — the Sunday market runs 8 AM–noon at the Wells Fargo lot, 2201 W State Route 89A, per the market's own site

— “Love & Laughter” Comedy Night — ninety minutes of stand-up from the Sedona International Film Festival, 7–8:30 PM at the Mary D. Fisher Theatre

— Sedona Yoga Festival — last day of the four-day wellness gathering among the red rocks

Show Low

— White Mountain Church Group disc golf — a casual Sunday round, 9 AM–noon

Prescott

— Dogtoberfest and Adopt-a-Thon — pet adoptions and four-legged merriment, 10 AM at 3101 Watson Lake Rd

— Prescott Fall Arts & Crafts Show — last day: artists, craftsmen, and food vendors on the Yavapai County Courthouse Plaza

— Arizona Philharmonic: Beethoven and Mozart — the Violin Concerto and the Jupiter Symphony, 3 PM at the Ruth Street Theater, 1050 Ruth St; tickets $28–69

— Nursing & Allied Health Job Fair — Northland Pioneer College opens its Show Low Campus Learning Center lobby, noon–1:30 PM, to job seekers. Health-care employers with open positions will be on hand, and the public is welcome.

• Wed, Oct. 7

— Brit Floyd — the world-touring Pink Floyd tribute brings its full spectacle to the Findlay Toyota Center in Prescott Valley, 7 PM. A night of classic rock under the arena lights.

• Fri, Oct. 9

— 33rd Annual Beeline Cruise-In Classic Car Show — the weekend roars to life Friday with a classic car cruise around town and the “Burger Burn” cookout at Rumsey Park. Saturday brings the main show on the grass at Green Valley Park — 2001-and-older cars, trucks, low riders, and rat rods.

— Prescott Antique Show & Vintage Market — treasure-hunting at the Prescott Rodeo Grounds, starting noon Friday. Antiques and vintage wares for every purse.

• Sat, Oct. 10

— 70th Annual Fort Verde Days — Camp Verde's homecoming weekend at Fort Verde State Historic Park, Saturday and Sunday: flag ceremonies, cannon demonstrations, living-history re-enactors, Dutch oven cooking, a people's-choice chili cook-off, and a parade down Main Street Saturday at 10 AM. Free fort entry both days.

— Wings & Wheels — static aircraft displays, vintage warbirds, and airplane and helicopter rides at the Sedona Airport, 9 AM, alongside the Sedona Car Club show. Admission is a non-perishable food item or $2.

— 34th Annual Sedona Arts Festival — more than a hundred juried artists gather at Sedona Red Rock High School, Saturday 9 AM–5 PM and Sunday 10 AM–4 PM. Live music, food trucks, and a beer and wine garden round out the red-rocks weekend.

THE DAYS AHEAD

• Tue, Oct. 6

— Trail Day Volunteer Build — lend thy hands to the trails: a volunteer trail-build day along Highway 87 in Pine, starting 7 AM. Bring work gloves and a stout heart; the forest thanks its tenders.

QUESTS OF THE HEARTH

Quests awaiting:

- ☐ Design & prep the torch sconces — Overdue — measure the flame bulb and socket, then find or design a wall-mount sconce worthy of the Hearth.
- ☐ Print the torch sconces — Overdue — two torches plus the socket test piece; test-fit before the paint.
- ☐ Finish & install the torches — Due Oct 10 — paint faux wrought iron or wood, then UV sealant for sun protection.

The craftsman's bench: torch sconces on the rise, a carved shield waiting by the door.

The torch sconces slipped past their due day — the print bed waits on thee, and the Hearth's torchlight with it.

MERCHANT OF THE HOLD

Red Rose Thriftique · Sedona

The thriftique's treasure room — every coin spent feeds a rescue beast.

A thrift store and artist boutique in Bell Rock Plaza, in the Village of Oak Creek — home decor, clothing, books, jewelry, and a steady rotation of secondhand treasures. Every single coin of profit flows to Red Rose Inspiration For Animals, funding free spay-and-neuter, emergency vet bills, and rescue work across the Verde Valley. The signature hunt: dig the racks for that one perfect find, then feel twice as good about the price — the beasts eat because thou didst shop.

“Red Rose Thriftique is a beautiful and unique store whose proceeds benefit animal rescue groups. All items are of quality and you can't beat the prices.” — a Birdeye review

41 Bell Rock Plaza, Sedona (Village of Oak Creek) · Mon–Fri 10 AM–5 PM, Sat 10 AM–4 PM, Sun noon–4 PM · (928) 282-5278 · prices gentle, thrift-shop coin · dogs welcome in the shop · their scrying-mirror page (other travelers call it a ‘website’)

Why the Hearth sends you: The Hearth sends its guests to shop where every purchase feeds a rescue beast — treasure-hunting with a warm heart.

TALES FROM THE TREELINE

THE GUEST BOOK

The guest log's first entry: one bottle cap, mirror-bright.

Sundas dawned warm as a fresh honey-cake, and the road past the Hearth filled with faire-folk and Valley Dwellers trading the lowland heat for Rim Country air — which put Jethro (the Mogollon Monster) in a welcoming frame of mind.

“The Hearth needs a guest book,” he announced, and dragged a hollow log up to the front door.

Being a monster of few letters, Jethro's guest book required no writing: each traveler dropped one shiny thing into the log. Flurry (a young ice-breathing dragon) appointed himself curator, rejecting three pinecones and a lost button before Mabel (a wood elf) ruled that sentiment counted.

Henny (the Hearth's plump Skyrim-style chicken) inspected each offering for edibility, and found them all wanting.

When a little girl dropped in a bottle cap polished to mirror-bright, Jethro was so moved he tried to hug the whole log — and tipped it clean over. Forty-seven shinies rolled down the sunlit deck in every direction. Flurry zigzagged after them on his kinked tail, collecting them twice as fast as they rolled, while Earl (an elk) stood very still in the middle of it all, dignity intact, pretending with great success that nothing was happening.

Mabel righted the log, declared it a guest log in the most literal sense, and Gus (an orc baker) arrived with honey-cakes — which Jethro entered into the book the only way he knew how: he drew a picture of a chicken judging a pinecone.

Printed with pride in Payson, in the shadow of the Rim · Set in hot metal by Dude, Bard of the Morning Scroll · May your Sundas be free of skeevers, Clay.

Ask the Hearth ☒