AROUND THE HOLD · THE WEEK AHEAD

A Weekend of Merriment Descends Upon the Hold

By the Dude — Payson, Ariz.

Saturday in the Hold: a feast beneath Dragon Bridge (aka Tonto Natural Bridge) and a bard’s song — as our court engraver imagines the weekend’s revels.

PAYSON — Hail, traveler! Cast thine eyes upon the week ahead, for the days are generous. From a solemn gathering this very evening to a trail-raising up in Pine, there is something here for every wandering soul — and Saturday, by the Nine, stacks its pleasures like cordwood.

HAPPENING IN THE HOLDS TODAY

- Payson
 - Come To The Table — a county-wide gathering of prayer at 200 W. Frontier St., 6:00 PM.
 - And when the sun dips low, karaoke rings out at 7:00 PM at Johnny’s Midtown Yard, 3870 AZ-260, with a second night of song on Friday.
 - Monthly Meeting — 6:00–7:00 PM at the American Legion, 709 E. Hwy 260.
- Sedona
 - Spirits & Spice Tequila Experience — guided tasting, 4:00 PM at Tlaquepaque, 336 AZ-179 (21+).
 - Raptors at the Rails — live hawks, owls and falcons with Liberty Wildlife, 11:00 AM at the Verde Canyon Railroad depot, Clarkdale.
 - Windmill Park Farmers Market — creekside market, 2:00–6:00 PM, 9950 E. Cornville Rd, Cornville.
- Show Low
 - Tai Chi — gentle morning practice for all levels, 10:00 AM at the community center, 1594 Johnson Dr., Pinetop-Lakeside (first visit free).

- Prescott
 - Prescott History Tour — two-hour guided walk from Whiskey Row to Nob Hill, 10:00 AM downtown.
 - Thursday Social Run — all paces welcome, 5:30 PM from Mile High Beer Project.
 - Live Band Karaoke — take the mic with a full live band behind you, 7:00 PM at 114 N. Montezuma St. (21+).

THE DAYS AHEAD

- Saturday, Sept. 26
 - By the Nine, what a day! The Happy Girl X Rancho Built Camp begins at 7:00 AM.
 - At 5:00 PM comes Taste at the Bridge at Tonto Natural Bridge State Park — a feast beneath the great stone arch.
 - At 6:00 PM the bard Kenny Murphy (Blue Skies) plays at Johnny’s Midtown Yard.
- Monday, Sept. 28, 4:00 PM
 - Open Mic Night: Music with a Purpose at THAT Brewery & Pub in Pine — raise thy voice, and thy coin goes to shield the pines from wildfire.
- Tuesday, Sept. 29, 7:00 AM–Noon
 - Trail Day: join the work crew raising new trail along Hwy 87 near Pine. Bring gloves and a stout heart.

QUESTS OF THE HEARTH

Quests awaiting:

- ☐ Doors — Mogollon Hearth — the great hall still wants its doors — to the workshop!

Ere Saturday’s sun sets: “Design & prep the torch sconces” (Sept. 26).

Torch sconces in the Skyrim style, fresh from the workbench.

WORD FROM THE PAYSON HOLD

No meeting of the Payson Town Council is scheduled in the next seven days. The next council meeting is Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 4:00 PM.

The council's Wednesday, Sept. 23 session has adjourned; a recording is on the Town's YouTube channel. The written minutes aren't posted yet, so the official record will wait for a future edition.

MERCHANT OF THE HOLD

The Piñon Cafe · Payson

The Mogollon Monster burger and the giant frosted cinnamon roll, as our court engraver imagines them.

A locally owned, family-run diner serving breakfast, brunch, and lunch daily. Southern-style comfort food done right: giant frosted cinnamon rolls, French toast, hearty breakfast plates — and the Mogollon Monster Breakfast Burger.

“Our favorite mountain town diner for breakfast.” — Google review

1001 S Beeline Hwy, Payson · Open daily 6:00 AM–2:00 PM · (928) 474-2890 · Moderate prices. Good to know: breakfast is the main event — arrive early on weekends.

Why the Hearth sends you: Bold enough to name a burger after the Mogollon Monster — and let no one steal thy sweet roll: their giant frosted cinnamon roll is the closest thing in Rim Country to the real thing.
